

DISCOURSE

No. 31

The Soul Restored

Scripture Reading: First letter of Peter to the dispersed tribes.

Greetings, beloveds. It is well when you are prepared within as you have been with prayer and meditation. Now you are better able to receive the higher truths of Spirit, for your minds and emotions are stilled. When you give up your ways and your will and come before your Lord with the focus on His purpose, then you transcend all else and come as a prepared vessel, to be filled with more of God's Holy Spirit. In these last days of the Age you are coming face-to-face with many things that will surprise and shock you. You are being told this ahead of time and you are being ministered unto by the angels of Heaven. You are being guided and led through the valleys of deceit by no other than the Shepherd of the flock, the Lord who has been given authority to govern the entire world as well as other flocks. And it has taken a long time to help you to come into position, into the realization that you are, even on this very day, dealing with the presence, the power of your Lord. It should not be surprising, for it was promised by the Father, but the words have fallen on deaf ears for a long time and you had to be conditioned to take the increase of light.

The body is not accustomed to receiving as much power as you have been experiencing in your midst during these past three weeks. It is like supplying you with food for the physical body, or fuel for vehicles which carry you in transportation. The needs of the spiritual body to meet what is to take place have been mercifully provided for by the Holy Spirit of God. You have benefitted by that magnification of power here and have received some conscious benefits. But most of it you were not aware of. It must be done; the nourishment of the soul is essential. Your faith in and love for the Master Jesus, who fulfilled this plan for restoring souls to renewed life, have brought this about. The desire to be one with your Lord has tremendous power and opens the door, opens the compartments of the consciousness so that finally you come into one great, expanded awareness.

The reason that we expand on different subjects from time to time is that as you grow and open we can come back with a little more on those same subjects. One of them has been the meaning of the great sacrifice on the cross; it has been difficult for you to understand. Another was when God spoke to Adam and Eve and said, "Of the fruit of this tree you must not eat or you will surely die." He meant the distraction and the deceptions of the world. Even now, if you slide back into the various aspects of the world kingdom, and your motives changing accordingly, then you are again eating of the fruits of the false systems--the dishonesty, the greed, the selfishness, the hate, the lust.

Today, the business world is coming more and more under the domination of Lucifer, and soul energies are being dissipated and diluted. They were when the children of Israel, who were told to keep the race pure, intermarried with other races. The race was to be kept pure and separate from the world for God's purposes, but not because of racial superiority. Many remained true to this; many did not. Today man is forcing integration and intermarriage among those whom God has willed to be separate peoples, with each according to the purposes in His plan. Being kind and loving to all souls, being one in spirit is entirely different from intermarriage between races, whatever the race. The energies of those begotten of the Father and sent forth in His likeness for His purpose on Earth became diluted, the spirit energy began to wane and the souls were actually dying out. Lucifer tried to deceive, tried to cover this by assuring the Adamic race that it would live, for look: reincarnation kept them going. But it did not give them the lifting power for a resurrection.

Finally, when the Lord came unto man, all the way into the lowest vibration, into the world to show how to rise up out of it, he did not remain long. He was with you only thirty-three years, each year a great example of the law being fulfilled in the model--a demonstration unto you. Daily he showed, by his words, his actions, his love, that the Father was working in him. In love he lay down his life for those the Father had given unto him--the Adamic race, begotten of the Father for special purposes. The power, the energies of the Heavens were in his blood that was spilled upon the Earth--a contact of Spirit that began to renew the Earth immediately... vital, live forces of creative power, energy of God, the Creator. Thus he restored life to the dying souls.

The body had to be broken; the heart had to be broken, as it were, that in the disillusionment of the physical world and the meeting of betrayal, he could rise up in spirit. He gave man hope that that which was broken could be made whole, resurrected by the regeneration within each. And his great love and sacrifice made it possible for all to follow, through that door, that way. Many teachers of truth and light have been in the world, but this one was the first Son of God to overcome the entire Earth, to transcend it and be resurrected. This opened the door wide for the believers of God to do the same, and the dying souls were given new life and love--a regeneration--and saved from losing the individual soul awareness of oneness with the Father.

So began the restoration of those souls into balance, into purpose, into fullness of life. God has been working through this, waiting patiently for those to come forth. No more creation--the day of rest in the sense that it is the passive time when there is not the begetting. He is waiting for those whom He sent forth to come back to Him fulfilled, mission accomplished, their Christhood achieved. Mankind, working through layers and layers of materiality and deceit, with so many karmic debts upon his shoulders, could not have risen if left to himself, for there were not enough of the Divine Energies left him, due to the dilution and his unbelief. There was no longer power in their coming together under the law of Oneness.

And so in a cave, unspoiled and apart from man's motives and greeds, the Child was born. And God's power was established upon Earth once more. One came with the capacity and love, and assumed a role for a time. He carried the burden of all karmic debt upon his shoulders, so that man could rise and be free. This did not relieve man of the responsibility of working out the remainder that he was left to cope with in good faith and an attitude of love, but he was no longer trapped. He was given the key; he was shown how it could be used, how divine love could give him the power to transcend the remainder and go through unto the resurrection. But he had to believe it, identify with that law-in-action and move with it. If he claimed it and gave thanks, he was forgiven and strengthened, cleansed to a point and it would continue. As he became aware he was told to forgive himself. Once he knew not; now he knows in an entirely different perspective. Now he believes in the One the Father sent to help man, to help him become integrated once more with the spiritual powers and the nature in which he was sent forth, to help him become disentangled from the webs of the world kingdom. And finally, the entire Earth would be cleansed.

The "good news" went forth: man no longer had to go through the deceit of death and enter into the lower realms, then come back in other incarnations and try again, with no spiritual power. Now all had been changed. The doors to the lower regions were opened. The Master, during the three days, went unto Beelzebub's realm, took light to the very center of the Earth, and the door was opened for all who desired light and would follow him, going forth with him into the Paradise State. And all those who had died since Adam were brought forth. Even some who had not been of the Adamic race, when they saw, realized and desired to follow the light, and they were brought in through adoption. The Master included all who desired to follow him, and the doors of Paradise were opened. Thereafter, all who died the physical death would enter the various planes of the fourth dimension; they were no longer bound to the prison state. Some were suspended for a time until they could go farther in the light. But those who believed entered into Paradise with him. Adam had returned to Paradise.

Those to come after would then go to Paradise. Many times you did this between incarnations and you would receive greater strength. Then you would come back with new insight and new choices as to how to enter and to what environment. This would be to help the soul work toward full restoration. It is as though you would take an infant with malnutrition and bring it back to life through supplemental feeding, adding all that in which he was deficient. Then he could move forward and progress. So it is with the soul bodies. Now you are growing because greater strength in you is lifting you further and further. Once you learn that the very things which have distracted and held you prisoner are the things upon which you have focused and fed, which you have desired on Earth, then many of these shall begin to fall away from you. You no longer have appetite for the things of the world's system. Gradually, they shall all fall away and you shall truly rejoice in the spiritual realms of the Father.

Come face to face with the realization of what is happening now, and understand how mercifully God has cared for you throughout your days of blindness. Now that you believe yourselves to be awakened, do not sit back complacently but desire to expand. Be willing to let go the old; cling not to the things of Earth or even memories of the past. Go forth in expectancy and new light, for your Father is leading you home through the Shepherd who became the visible demonstration of the law in action and gave hope unto you. In faith, go through the trials and testings in the years ahead. Sometimes you begin to feel that it has been so long, maybe it will never happen. Yet it will happen; it is already happening and is bringing a change in you.

Then, you begin to walk in reality. Your feet are yet on the surface of the Earth, but your focus is on the Master who overcame and glorified the Father. His example should inspire you and help you not to be distracted by the outer world. You are still confused in this, no matter how well meaning you are.

His instructions are now coming back to you, as soul remembrance is tapped. When you hear the instructions anew in the outer consciousness, as the Lord calls his own, you know. You open up and respond because you know in your heart the instructions were for you, are still for you. You are now moving into action--slowly at the moment, but standing at attention until your Lord makes ready the way. He who goes before you will not forget you but will draw you out of the world of temptation, out of the valley of the shadow of death--that deceit of temporal life and the pattern of birth and rebirth. He shall draw you into the fullness of the Father's Life in the higher realms.

As you respond in your hearts to these messages, it is the Spirit working. No one is convincing your minds of anything; no one desires to. It is matching the need, bringing into awareness the affinity between those that are born of the Spirit, who have walked together throughout the ages. Many who incarnate together find an immediate rapport, and nothing can hinder this. No man cometh except the Father draw him; the Father within the temple of you draws you unto those to whom you respond, for those of the Spirit recognize Spirit in all who are moving together in the same purpose.

Receive the same food, work together for the same purpose, and slowly remembrance comes to the surface of the waters. Then you feel as though you have known each other always. This is so, for in Spirit, there is no past, no present or future; no distance or time. Those born of the Spirit know those of Spirit and all are coming into oneness in the Father's plan. So learn to live each day with a greater realization that your soul is being restored to its vital energies of life, to its eternal life awareness--that God's love is increasing in you. You are drawn together to work hand-in-hand with those who follow the Shepherd, keeping your eyes on the one going before. Then know that each day you are receiving your daily bread--for the soul--receiving energies when realization comes of contact with the indwelling Spirit. The energies flow through. You will also have your needs met on the physical plane. It is simultaneous. You are functioning in the outer physical and yet you are living with God in the inner life of the temple. This brings a different kind of life, a different perspective.

In your individual life you are doing this daily. Part of the time you are aware of the indwelling Presence of God, aware of the Spirit functioning in you. Part of the time you believe that you are begotten of the Divine Nature and are supposed to take authority in that nature. You turn to the inner awareness part of the time, and yet it is only part of the time. All difficulties can be solved by turning within. When two or more are gathered together in His Name and Nature--in that Higher Nature, that consciousness, that realization of the Son, One with the Father--then things happen. Spirit is magnified in your midst. But you cannot hold this and you turn again to the outer. When you turn inside-out, as it were, there will be abundant strength and that within shall manifest outwardly and help man.

Take to yourselves the instructions to the early believers. They are of Spirit. Believe that every word the Master left is for you. Be ye like unto him. Learn to be at home in the inner life, to be at ease in the Spirit, by practising just as you are doing here. Each day power has built in your midst because there was deliberate assembling together in the Lord's Name. Purpose, never lose sight of the purpose. And as you return unto your homes, sit or lie down quietly or in any other way that is comfortable enough to put the physical body at ease. Then it will not distract you from entering the house of your Lord. Enter, explore within and ye shall find food from the storehouse--knowledge, understanding--revelation. In the Light, rising in the love you shall learn to see in the fourth dimension. Cultivate those habits which are constructive and sit and wait upon your Lord. Do not fret if you do not seem to have a tangible answer. When you do have an idea, or a prompting that seems born of Spirit, then follow through, no matter what the cost.

When you return home, if you do not have a partner in prayer, do not rush out to find one humanly. Turn within and pray that the Father draw one to you that will enter into the oneness of Spirit with you. Then be alert and read the signs as they develop, as various ones come near. Two or more in the Divine Nature of Spirit can come together in oneness just as all of you now are in a circle of oneness. You can feel and experience the power moving through, and greater action will follow according to the laws of God.

The power in your midst is the Holy Spirit of God, atoms of energy of collective power, ready for you to use. For a time, you may have to use your imagination to help cultivate divine visualization. At times, man, with his mortal mind, will misuse it, but you are making the image in the divine nature, forming the image by idea. This is God in Spirit, in thought, in light--idea in the higher nature, taking form according to your governing and directing with the building blocks of creation. While it is necessary at certain times for each of you to draw apart for replenishment, do not depend upon this alone, for the Father would draw you together for magnification of His power on the higher plane--the great law of attraction: like attracts like in soul rapport and for purposes of Spirit.

The divine energies on the higher planes draw together those of like kind and like purpose. And these powers and energies go forth in greater magnification of Spirit, that they work to form God-idea and govern it. You will learn to bring into form that which the created energies would manifest on various dimensions, and with love will govern in wisdom and justice, for you are being trained to be co-rulers with the Lord of Earth. This is all according to the perfect plan of the Father. Do not delay yourselves by looking at your human weakness with discouragement. God works through your weakness and raises you. In Him you are strong. We bless you in His Name. The light is increasing rapidly in your midst. We are preparing you to be able to take greater light until finally you can see the fullness of His Plan and not be shaken in the soul or in the nervous system of your body. God's mercy allows for the strengthening and building of that within you until it can meet and match Spirit. Selah.

* * * * *

Blessed are the meek, for they shall inherit the Earth in its cleansed and purified state, and shall be co-rulers with me. Your Shepherd shall never desert the flock. Where I am, so shall you be always--one millenium of Light manifesting in the Kingdom on Earth. Then the second resurrection and ascension unto cosmic realms of infinity. Be ye one in the Father. Bless you, my children. I and the Father are One, and the Father doeth the works through me. Believe and it shall be done unto you. He has ordained it and so shall it be.

* * * * *

Beloveds, be not surprised; your Lord promised to be here with you. He is working with his flock through the end of this time and the beginning of the Kingdom. Truly he is leading you through the Portals of Light. Wonder not that he comes in your midst as you gather in his Name. He will come unto all believers who put down self long enough to be one with him in Spirit, believing in his name and nature.

The Master blessed the heads of each one of you, and the pineal gland within was increased in its functioning and there was a quickening of the spirit. The other glands follow suit as the head gives the command to the rest of the body. From the heart springs forth the motives. Be sure of the purity of your motives. The heart and the head shall be united. The motives, the purpose and the direction shall come as the Son unites with the indwelling Spirit of the Father, and again you shall be made whole. The power is great, it is difficult to use the voice box when there is such intensity of power in your midst. The Master is leading you all the way. Trust and love and praise the Father. Peace be with you. We bow in His Presence. Selah.