Identify As His Disciples

Blessings, children of the Light. Many are with you from invisible realms. Many are the cosmic forces working in this crucial day of your Earth, and we are desiring to bring a greater realization in you as you move forward with the greater understanding of the messages we have been bringing to you for so long. Thus we have called these classes of instruction at the Wastena retreat, the "Fourth Dimensional Discipleship, Continued", for it is not something you can acquire in a little while.

We have referred to the Upper Room instructions. It is parallel to the days when Jesus had reached the point in his mission when he was no longer to give out so much to the multitudes. However, he carried the inner teachings to those that gathered close to him in the Upper Room, in the higher consciousness, just before he was to go further in his great mission for Earth. And so it is that, as the days approach the ending of this Age and the millennium of Light not far away, we come with you into a parallel of the Upper Room discussions--those that are of the soul purpose and the inner group, as it were, with the deep desires to be in God's will and to understand further in their hearts.

These mysteries are only mysteries to the intellect. They are natural to the spirit of you, and it is as the focus changes from that of the mortal--with the intellect and the materialistic viewpoint of the Earth--to turning within to the Kingdom of God within you that you then come into the true realization of the life of the spirit: your inner life, your inner consciousness that brings forth to the outer dimensions the results of that taking place within. The forth dimension, the paradise state of long ago is to be that dimension manifesting on the earth instead of three cubits above it. It is an interpenetrating fusing, you might say, with the third dimension, until finally it transcends the limitations and the difficulties of that third dimension. One either expands with it or one is suspended in the second dimension until the thousand years are over.

The millennium of Light is the greater intensification of the energies which are light. Light is the rate of vibration of the frequency in which the energies move in their constructive work of Earth, and love transforms energy into action of birth, rebirth, creativity, feeling, and experiencing. Light reveals--reveals the plan, the idea of God. The Spirit in motion, then the love of the heart--the head and heart united, the idea, the plan of God--revealed in the energies of light, and then transformed or converted energy into the bringing forth of this plan into action. The sons are projected forth, raised up into His power, and given authority to take command and govern His creation. If it is according to His will and plan, it is eternal; if not, it is temporal and shall go. The God-Light sustains eternally that which is the plan of the Great Architect.

The millennium will be that great Light--energies moving at a greater rate of vibration, a higher frequency of light that shall transform the Earth. Man must be conditioned to meet it, to take it, to live in it, to move with it; and, if he is raised up unto God's purposes, he is conditioned to meet it. This is part of the preparation going on now for those of Earth. But the motives of the heart are the main things to be watched. Search out the soul, each one. Let the motives be pure. Put down the human self that the selfless one appear. Thus, that raised up in the Christ--that Christ consciousness within--is the Spirit quickening the souls, raising up that which is the begotten son in each one. The beloved Master Jesus was the first to overcome the earth and to meet this--to move with this law and demonstrate it perfectly, as the wayshower, the Shepherd--in order to lead the rest of the flock into the fullness of God's plan.

So as the Shepherd gathers his flock together--those following the Master--he speaks to those serving, he sends forth ministering angels to tend his flock and to minister unto them even as they ministered unto Jesus. As you go forth day by day, you are in his care and keeping. You have free will consent and choice, and each day is a new challenge to move in his consciousness, move in his heart, you might say, in love for your fellow man. We do not mean to partake of what your fellow man may be doing out in the world or to necessarily agree with him, but love the soul that it be raised up into the higher consciousness and transcend that of the human nature; bring it literally out of the grave, out of the imprisonment.

Each day brings you closer to the new kingdom which your Lord has promised. It is already in preparation, but it has not yet manifested outwardly; it does not yet appear, but it shall. It is in the process, in the making, and God moves through each instrument, each child of light offered unto Him. He sent forth but He will not take back without consent. He prepared those that could be used in the plan of the creation, but the growth could only be by the free will choice of those that would return unto Him, and would do so freely desiring to be in His will, that the plan be accomplished through each one.

That is the destiny; that each one be a part of individuality, expressing God in action according to His plan. What better destiny is there? Man is not sent out for himself, but to glorify the Father, to be the expression, the manifestation, the extension, the magnification of all that the Father is: creative energies made ready that the intelligences He sent forth as His own be ready to be the transformers through which this energy would go, that they transform it into action according to His plan. If they are not in alignment with His plan, then it is not to go through them as channels of that Light.

Those that have accepted and who desire to be part of the kingdom offer themselves as the vessels, conveyors of energy, and the transformers through which it may go and be converted into the various forms and purposes that His plan will reveal in the Light to the consciousness which has been offered unto Him--a perfect plan. And what wisdom is used, what intelligence is available, all working together for good! Creative forces of God are not sent out at random. That which is not a part of His plan must remain outside of the action and be suspended until the desire is present to be in His plan. His plan is the wisdom of all creation.

Great are the galaxies, universes, worlds without end. How many bodies or flocks or hosts should He send out? He has sent many, many, many of His children to tend His worlds. You are among those of a group that became sidetracked and had to be called back to attention, to the assignment, to the destiny. The Adamic race was to be raised up for that purpose. Then this strain was again brought through after the disobedience broke that pure strain. Then the seed was to come through Abraham through Isaac and be dispersed over the Earth innumerable. And so it is that many are now awakening in their soul memories, coming into the realization that they are part of these lost tribes of Israel. Israel--"God with us"--God within.

Intelligent government--God-life--is in all. But special ones, races in the universe, were brought forth and raised up to be the governing factors, the sons of God begotten in His image, that of His nature, that of His intelligence that would be the governing factors of His solar systems and galaxies. These were to take dominion over the lesser forms of life on each planet. Adam was given dominion over the animal world, the vegetable world, the mineral world--the kingdom of lesser intelligence. The sons of God would be the higher form of life and intelligence to govern that of the rest of the creation, and to take dominion. Instead, they became victimized through deceit, disobeyed, and turned to partaking of that which was not according to the plan; therefore there was a waiting, a tarrying.

God's mercy extended to where there still was room for learning through the experience in the school room of Earth, through birth and rebirth, until finally the end of the Age, at which time there will be a coming off the wheel of birth and rebirth and a continuing on the course into the higher realms of God's functioning. There was delayed action, but you are now ready to move forward in the resurrection that is coming, up out of the suspension of the dream state and, moving in greater light, into the reality of the realm of spirit which is the eternal life. The consciousness moves into the greater realm of Light. It is lifted through the love of the heart and the quickening of the spirit and the raised consciousness and by the increased rate of vibrations of the atoms of energy going forth in frequencies in the great highways of the cosmic.

Follow the light, follow the star; continually move forward on the path toward the goal of the perfected state of being--the Christhood of each of the sons of God. It is the Father that doeth the works through you. You surrender to His will. Release the hold that you have in the third dimension. Be willing to rise as He calls forth His own. It is not long until the Rapture of the Church, as it is called in your Holy Writings, shall take place, with those desiring to follow their Lord obediently watching and waiting. And as He has given, if you are upon the roof, the housetop, and you hear the call, do not turn back even to go into the house for your clothes or any belongings. Keep your affairs in order, be ready to go when your Lord calls.

Many will be lifted up into the clouds to meet him and into the celestial ships while the greater part of the tribulation continues and the shifting of the poles takes place--the stabilizing of the Earth. All these are in your Holy Writings; read what your Lord has left preserved for you. We are only repeating and reminding you of that which you already have. It is not to be kept from anyone. As you read your Holy Writings in prayer and meditation, you will find that they open up to the heart that desires to know God's will.

It may take a little time, but practice, cultivate it and it shall come. Ask and it shall be given. Seek and ye shall find. Knock and it shall be opened unto you. These are realities, they are not vain promises; but you must meet the conditions required. If you love your Lord, ye abide in him, in his consciousness, in his ways, and his words abide in you; they do not pass through your mind quickly, but abide in you. Then, in that higher state of consciousness, meeting those conditions you may ask anything and it shall be done unto you, for you have dominion and you are in the soul awareness, one with him.

The Christ consciousness is one with the Father and in that contact the Father doeth the works through. You carry the God-given equipment with you. Put down the human will and let His will rule, and you shall find results. Come into the realization of it in the innermost part of your being. These are the true applications of God's laws in you. It must be not only a belief in the head but a realization in the heart--in the center of your being. You have the power to know. You have access to the wisdom of the ages, to the intelligence that brings forth much more than the intellect could possibly bring. Let that mind be in you that is in Christ Jesus, that higher consciousness--higher because of the love that was in Him.

The love is the motivating factor that brings ascension. The consciousness can begin to rise at any point along the way and to expand, to encompass more, increasing the capacity so that then the prayer may be answered for more to be brought to remembrance, more to be revealed in the light, a greater capacity for light as the energies move through, for the quickening of the spirit--and the spirit expands. Then the holy temple of you is filled with the indwelling presence of the Lord Most High. The temple is holy because it is filled with the energies of the Creator. The ground is holy upon which you stand because the Creator has placed you according to His will, filled with His energies of creative force, filled with Divine Intelligence. The center, the nucleus of each cell of your being is waiting for that control center when the Divine Intelligence moves through you to control and govern all the cells of the body. Then the kingdom is being raised up in you, when the mortal mind stops trying to govern--this has caused the short circuit.

Wisdom and intelligence is of God; mortal mind and deceit and self-centeredness is of Lucifer in the false creation. If Jesus had to meet this and the thoughts and the influences that the tempter would bring forth, and he still had to say "get thee behind me Satan", do you not think that you must do so even more? And he said, "Do not tempt the Lord, thy God". That Christ consciousness in you must not be tempted. Rule it out; rule out the tempter by your command in the name of the Christ, in that consciousness which is being raised up in you. You have been given authority to take control, not in the human self, but in the divine God-given nature within you. Take control, take authority and command that Satan be cast out from you. Keep your focus on the one who became Christed--the shepherd for you to follow in obedience to this plan of the Father.

It is not the human that you would worship, but the divine nature of the Christhood which Jesus manifested and promised would also manifest in you. Then will spiritual man come into his own purposes in the divine plan; then will the children of God be brought forth to literally rule His universe. It is difficult for you to grasp all the concepts at this time, but you are being drawn out of the human nature and raised up in your divine nature. This is the magnification of the Spirit and glorifies the Father. It is His perfect will in action.

So there must be the talks with those of the Upper Room understanding. Those that would go all the way with the Master must be ready to go beyond and learn of the things that only the remnant--those preserved unto God's purposes in this New Age--will be shown when this new kingdom is manifested outwardly. It is within now. It was within when Jesus spoke of this almost two thousand years ago. The kingdom is within, and it is to step forth as he called Lazarus forth. The soul steps forth and takes command in the divine nature of its being, for the Holy Spirit of God is the breath of life within the soul, and it is a living soul.

Life is God. Without God there is no life. Thus you are the holy temple, the governing power of the God-force, and the intelligence given unto the sons of God. It is not to your credit; it is not for you to boast of; it is unto the glory of the Father that that which He sent forth according to His plan is His will being carried out. When you consciously realize this, then step aside in the human nature, acquiesce to it, agree, consent to let it be done even so; consciously co-operate with the soul's commitment, and then you come into alignment, into oneness with the purpose. Even as you sit quietly such as this, invisible forces are working with you. It is not only the Word which we would send to you. The soul is being fed, literally; the light is increasing in your consciousness. God's love is filling you, the in-dwelling spirit is guiding you, and the spirit within bears witness to the truth. Would you hear it you would know.

You are becoming humbled. The meek shall inherit God's Kingdom on Earth, shall manifest in it, shall take dominion and rule with Him for a thousand years and then ascend unto higher realms. The first ascent is only temporary, and then they, returning through the millennium of Light, complete the mission upon which they were sent into paradise long ago--cause and effect. They must finish the task on Earth before moving on. The great cycle of the Light Age is at the opposite pole from the Dark Ages. Balance of energy must be brought unto the Earth. The balancing power is so essential. And this is true in the individual coming into alignment, moving in equilibrium.

But control must come before balance can be attained. Control the thoughts, control the emotions. The soul has authority to take control. Control the habits, the environment, the circumstances around it. When the soul wakes up to the fact of its God-given authority, it will no longer be subject to or a victim of circumstance. It has control of the situation; it has the intelligence to govern it. It has not been using it. When this control is manifesting, man brings things into order, establishes order within him, around him, and wherever he goes. He moves through the Earth in order and balance. This would be as a maturity of the soul, a poise, a balance in the way one would move through all things, unaffected by the storm, unaffected by emotions or disappointments, overriding and transcending these human frailties, human disappointments and hurts--re-oriented around the divine center.

These are not imaginary things but the very realities of your existence. Ponder them well; let them sink into the fertile ground; feed upon them; apply them as realities in your life. It is not as difficult as you think if you truly believe them as realities. Be still and listen; be still and know within. That which is within, when upon a firm foundation and brought forth in faith, shall manifest outwardly. And it shall begin to appear or to show what you truly are. There will be no more camouflage or hiding, nor deceiving. You shall be exposed in the Light of God, and you are His own, going through the refining process of the intensification of light.

You shall move through even as the fiery furnace, because you shall be the corresponding frequency; you shall be the matched impedance of this energy of light if you are moving in this direction of fulfillment. The electromagnetic field, the force field around you and within you is as a nebula--a nebula of increasing rate of vibration, expanding consciousness, as a sun and solar system, with increasing wisdom and intelligence to govern that expanding consciousness and life. Being aware of the love of God within you, and returning that love unto God opens the door and is the motivating power that transforms into action and into new form the energies with which you are to deal, to govern.

If you cannot learn to control the kingdom of you and govern it--and the Christ consciousness of you is the head of that government--then how do you expect to do greater things in His name, in His service? Each one is raised up as governor of his own kingdom--each individual son of God--and he is to expand that kingdom, expand his consciousness. The consciousness of the solar system is divine energy, part of the vast idea, the vast plan of the Creator that is Creation. The Cosmic Light moves through this and the great light energies that reveal that plan unto all areas--the dimensions that are extensions--are the spiritual laws of Creation. Worlds without end carry on and Life is sustained eternally.

See your place in this Creation--your many lifetimes on this Earth. Your human self is, of course, insignificant, but the spark of Life which is composed of God-energy, went forth from God and is raised up in His image, His purpose, eventually, glorifying the Father who gave it. In humility bow before your God; move in faith--trust in His power, His strength. In the midst of human weakness you shall find the strength of God in your divine nature. If you were not humanly weak you would not need nor discover the greater within. So it is a blessing in disguise. Your divine nature is God-nature in action, dormant until you put down the human self and rise up in the reality of your true nature. In this knowledge go forth as His disciples and accomplish His purposes.

Bless you, beloveds. Peace be unto you. Let confusion vanish from your minds. The mortal mind is only temporary; the divine mind in you has all knowledge, all wisdom, all enlightenment. You are destined to return to the realization of this; in this assurance rejoice, be thankful and go through the crumbling of the old world with trust and confidence in your God. Know that this shall soon pass away and the true realities of Life shall then be revealed. The promise of your Lord shall be kept; you shall be a part of his kingdom and go on to greater resurrection. The Cosmic Plan awaits you--rejoice! Peace abide in you as you move in alignment with the Father's Will.

So be it unto you, now and forevermore! The angels of Heaven rejoice with you, for they are coming closer to Earth as the time draws near. The promise of a new Earth shall be fulfilled.

Stay close to your Lord in consciousness and love. Read your Holy Writings and identify with the Master as you read of him. He shall return to you in visible form; be prepared to answer when he calls. Within your hearts you shall know, for you are his.

There shall be greater light as power is built up in this area during the retreat so that your consciousness may be expanded. This will bring greater understanding of the concepts of the Great Plan. The Lord be with you. Selah.

Send forth the Light, beloveds, from this powerful vortex of energies built in your midst. Send it forth unto those in need, and send Light to areas of war and dispute. This Light shall cover the Earth until all shall eventually be changed. Direct it forth through your consciousness.

These sessions are only a part of this retreat. Beloveds, please meditate well in both the morning and evening hours. Send forth many prayers that God's Will be done on Earth as in Heaven. This place is dedicated to that purpose. As you send God's love forth, many shall be blessed. God is with you. May His peace fill your being and His indwelling Spirit guide you into the greater realities.

DISCOURSE

No. 4

Listen to the Lord

Greetings and blessings to you. We have been with you through the day, and as the consciousness is high in each of you we are in attunement and many times bring thoughts and ideas through to you telepathically. We practice communing with you when you remain in higher consciousness so much of the time in an atmosphere that is conducive to this. There have been those who attended the early sessions of the retreat who have left here with rich blessings within. There has been much begun here that will show return, for the higher energies have entered into them. Some of the weight has been lifted from their hearts, and joy has increased within them. Now they have returned to their homes with preparation begun toward the conditioning that will see them through the end of these times.

Others are coming tomorrow, and throughout these three weeks there shall be a lifting, an acceleration of power and energies, and we shall lead your souls up the steps each day. It is as though you would climb to the mountain tops, and that which is being raised up in you, the Christ consciousness, is as the capstone to the great pyramid. All these developments of the temple of you are leading to things of which you are not yet aware, but will move you into in greater realization.

It is difficult to explain to those of Earth why we are assisting them in the increase of light and energy, and lifting their consciousness into higher realms. Through this, as children you grow, day by day, but the process is being speeded up because the time is so short. Many are being prepared, for the "call" could come any time, and yet it may also be several years. It is not for us to know when, but in obedience we prepare you and see that you are ready. We obey our Lord's commands; we know the time is imminent, so preparedness moves ahead, for when mighty things strike upon the earth they shall happen rapidly, whether it be war or cataclysms.

Thus we alert you, not for fear but for preparation, and we have asked that each life become simplified. Come out from the involvements of the world that might delay you at the moment that you must be ready, so that you be free souls as much as possible. There will not be time for explanations or excuses, for justifications of the souls who do not want to leave unfinished business. There will not be time for us to repeat, to give you lengthy talks, in order to lead your souls into light frequencies gradually. So now is the time to complete whatever can be completed, make choices that would simplify your affairs and your life, and let your hearts open for the love of God that shall lift you into greater heights.

Let all this sink into your realization now while you have the opportunity. The Father's business moves on into new stages and He brings about the evolving of Creation--the unfoldment of many cycles, many eons that seem to take great lengths of time. And yet when these come to a close everything moves to the cusp of this event. Then quickly as lightning the changes come. You have been seeing more indications of this in your world, but you are beginning to take them for granted. It is true that there will be more, but be alert so that you be not sleeping disciples when the call comes.

Awakened souls shall become increasingly aware as these changes come when the Earth moves into higher frequencies and there are disasters and crumb-lings all about. But be not depressed; be alert and take them as signs. Lift up your heads and be ready to march forward, for the climax is drawing closer and closer. If we do nothing more than keep you alert, this will be a help, but we are preparing you so that your souls will be able to correspond with the energies into which you will move.

Your attitudes must be watched so that you desire to serve in the best way you know how. You may grow impatient when you do not know what to do in the waiting times between, when it seems you are waiting for nothing, but this is not so. You are gathering energies into your soul so that it be fortified, be strong when the enemy appears, and we are helping you to form the habit of calling upon your Lord and His ministering angels and to know of the Presence within you. We wish it to be so familiar to you that you never think, for one moment, that you are alone. These things are necessary before the crucial times, for all is building up to a climax.

You are growing stronger in each fibre of your being and when the need comes, remember that you will have thousands at your side--the invisible host of the Lord. As the remnant is being gathered together there shall be cosmic ones working with each and every group and individual that is striving to serve in the Lord's work of establishing the Kingdom of Heaven on earth. Learn to listen more within, for this shall bring forth more intuition. As you cultivate this, when you have emergency calls come through when you are still, you will learn to recognize, take heed and obey. For it is the divine system within you that shall keep you on the track of what you are to do and when. It will not be for others to tell you.

We are leading you into the realization of your own communication system. The divine nature, which is the real you, has this ability. This indwelling spirit will prompt you, guide you. Then if it still seems weak and small, be still again. Cultivate this until you are so accustomed to living with it in your inner life that you know when the signals are coming forth. The time for practice is when it is quiet. In noise and tumult it will be difficult to cultivate this. So daily, practice listening for the Lord in the stillness. He will send promptings to you, intuitive feelings. Pray for discernment so that you recognize them as apart from your own ideas which come in a different way. Many of the things that you thought to be your own have been some of these quiet promptings becoming stronger and yet a little stronger until you follow through. Consciously remember that you are a disciple of the Lord in this day. Ask that you be guided by that spirit within you which is the God-given spirit, that aspect of God sent forth in power.

Sit in the stillness each morning and evening and as much as you can through the day, even if only for a few minutes. After having offered yourself, emptied of self, then be still and listen to that which comes to the surface of the waters of consciousness. Then weigh it carefully so as to know whether the Lord is bringing things from your subconscious which might be needed for your remembrance, or whether there is a prompting of something to be done.

If it does not come, at least you have offered, you have provided the opportunity. Know then that it is in the making. If it does not come at that time, know that along the way you will suddenly receive a thought, a message, an indication or a prompting, and be ready to receive it. Then give thanks and use it.

Upon going to sleep at night, offer yourself, and release into the Light a need you may have or a problem to be solved; expectantly release it and go to sleep, watching for the answer when you awaken. Many times in the morning the problem is solved or the method is brought forth that is needed, or even at the time that you move toward that particular thing. Be expectant; the Spirit brings forth for those who have faith and expectancy.

There are many things that you may practice in your inner life, but you must be quiet more often in order to live in that inner life. Become accustomed to it that you may bring it into the outer. As you do this you will begin to find ways and means to simplify your life, to get rid of the clutter in your home, to cut down on the business affairs. All these will come about as you realize the importance of the heavenly state over that of materiality. It is a changing of the perspective, a reorienting, and many things shall fall behind you. Things of old shall pass away--much which was of interest to you shall no longer be of interest, for you are on your way out of an old world. You are on your way into a new kingdom of glories beyond that which you could possibly dream. Faith is the bridge between the two, but you have not yet fully comprehended this, and you hesitate to turn loose of the old before knowing that you have hold of the new. But if you keep your eyes and your focus on your Lord, you shall walk across and you shall not sink.

These are the days of spirit--spirituality rather than materiality. You have seen what has happened in the past: it has not brought you security or happiness--only pain, distress and disillusionment. Souls that are bound together through communion shall move together--the spiritual family of the souls moving forward. They will begin to know the hearts of one another without the ordinary means of communication, for there will be no time nor distance. This is the time to feel and experience the mellowness of souls that are blending and being prepared to go into the Kingdom of Heaven.

It is a holy time, a sacred time. The Father is extending love and mercy unto His own, tenderly caring for them in the days of distress, sending out angels to minister unto them, joyously waiting their return. The preparations have begun, just as in the parable of the prodigal son. The "fatted calf" is being prepared, there is expectancy in the heavens, for the children of God are returning unto their Father's business, they are coming into union with the indwelling spirit. They are coming in as co-rulers of the Kingdom of Heaven on Earth--closer to the realization of "God with them"--the Father doing the works through the sons, a time of rejoicing in the heavens.

There cannot be sadness for crumbling systems of a false world. Compassion for the souls that have not yet made their choice to go into the heavenly estate, yes, but in the wisdom and mercy of God, they too will be carefully cared for in suspension until they can come forth into this newly established world--given another opportunity. They will be the ones that you will care for when they reincarnate, and once again they will have the opportunity to live 1,000 years just as they did long, long ago, but choice, distractions, bring their results. Some will make good use of opportunities given, some will not. Until that time, they shall be suspended while the children of God are re-establishing order upon the earth, making preparations for them to enter.

Develop patience. We say be patient, wait, and yet we say it is urgent, the time is short. We know that this sounds like a paradox, and we realize you have difficulty in comprehending this, and that you would like to know more in detail just what to do, but this would be breaking the great law, even if we could tell you, for you are put to the test to turn within and begin to know from the Source. Repair the communication system within you, cultivate it, listen and be aware. For forty days and nights the disciples waited at Pentecost and began to think that nothing would happen. But they obeyed, and the spirit of God descended upon them. You have less than forty years, much less, before the new century is well on its way.

During the lifetime, the thirty-three years of Jesus, much was developing, but he had three years of great ministry. You may only have three years of action, but development is taking place, plans are being made in Heaven. You are being called to stand to attention, for preparedness goes before the call and before the action.

The greater portion of the "day of wrath" will be toward the end of this century. When you know that it is only a part of this that you will have to endure, then the time is indeed short for those who are called up to meet their Lord. Your familiarity with the knowledge of the ships will prevent fear at that time. It does not matter whether you see them in the skies now or not, but you are desiring them. Do you know what this means? You will desire yourself to be drawn right up into them at the time the Lord speaks. This is as it should be. This is your soul choice and desire already looking up, part of the mercy of God.

Those that draw back and want no part of them will not be called. Your soul is already indicating the direction in which it shall go. Lift up your heads, not only symbolically but literally, and know that your Redeemer draweth nigh in the skies to which you look. Those who have tried to be so literal with the Holy Writings through the years did not know how literal it was possible to be, for the very things that shall take place are more literal than that which they could see. They would argue over doctrines and creeds and dispute over translations while those who would serve their Lord are looking up to follow. It is the prompting of the in-dwelling spirit that is causing souls to choose--to look up and to desire. Desire opens the door to freedom.

The "spiritual import of the space ships coming"--that is what we gave four years ago. It is the key to the thousands of ships surrounding your planet. Of course they come in love. Had they been coming in any other way they would have destroyed you long ago. They are gathering near and letting it dawn upon your consciousness gradually so that you not be afraid, that you have time to learn the reasons and the purpose, that you confirm it in your Holy Writings. They come to lovingly assist you, and to await the final word of the Lord of Earth to move in at the moment that the host of darkness would come against the children of Light. Then God moves quickly, then legions shall fall at thy side and yet not come nigh thee.

The children who have offered to serve God will be preserved unto His purposes. They are in many, many small areas, being gathered together until they will either be brought into larger circles, or will be guided or drawn up into safe keeping until further instructions. They will be taken to out-of-the-way places, away from the noise of the world into quiet places to commune with the Father, again walking and talking with Him as the communication system is restored within the divine being. Have faith that with all this that is taking place you shall be guided, you shall be protected, you shall be instructed according to His will. The greatest instruction takes place within you and you are practicing that every time you come together in prayer or you each sit quietly alone.

The power of the Spirit is great, and you shall teleport in this power when the weights of the mind and the consciousness and the weights upon the shoulders are removed by your releasing them, simplifying and bringing into order all that you can. Let the beliefs in your minds begin to enter into your souls as realizations so that it be complete, so that you be wholly integrated in His purposes. Learn to break the tensions of the body, to relax more physically, release all that holds, such as emotional conflicts. Be detached from that which would hinder and become souls free to move as the Father bids. You can reorder a great deal in your home and business affairs. Much that you have thought necessary is not necessary at all.

You are souls found worthy to be preserved unto God's new estate, and that you be taught in due course to move in line with that new kingdom on Earth. So be patient during the tarrying time, for once that is over things shall move swiftly. Trust in your Lord. We shall be with you more. We shall work with the soul bodies this evening. Be aware of our presence with you. We minister unto the soul bodies lovingly and gently. Do not be afraid, your Lord so ordained this. Relax as much as you can as you retire. Let the soul move with us and it shall be in safe keeping. As you learn to put aside your emotions you will have more memories of what is taking place.

All is well. You are making progress in all that you are striving for. Your sincerity has brought you to a new plateau, a training period of increased intensity. Do not be alarmed at any different feelings, sensations or changes in the glands of the body. We are carefully preparing you. You are blessed and the spirit within is quickening the soul, preparing for that union of soul and Spirit--Father and son united. Do not question the timing; God moves in mysterious ways His wonders to perform. His love surrounds you, the Christ light surrounds you; you are being raised up in His name. Bless you. Selah.
