

DISCOURSE

No. 6

Many Are With Us

Scripture Reading: Second letter of Peter to the early Christians.

Our greetings unto you. With the concentration of the power at this retreat building up day by day into greater magnification of the spirit, we are in almost constant attunement so that we can speak with you at any time through our channel, whether she be conscious or unconscious. We have come, as foreordained, into this available vortex for greater charging of heavenly powers. It is easy to move into the midst of you who come together to enter into the Christ consciousness, but the Spirit is shut out when man's focus is on the pattern of the world and he enters into its various distractions. The energies of God's creative powers are dissipated in so many instances, or else they are gathered together in destructive forces by those who often use His power more readily than those who could better be entrusted with it.

There is great need for more to be gathered together in God's name. In that vibration, in that consciousness souls are lifted up, power is increased and light comes unto Earth to counteract the destructive riots and wars among nations and the intense hatred that breeds these forms of destruction. We are leading you into the realization of that which has been but a belief in your minds for so long. When you experience the power of the Spirit in your midst you shall be brought into the meditative state more easily, and you will find the inner attunement which is your communion with God and your communion with each other, whether you are apart or not.

The souls that are brought forth in God's image have their own built-in communication system, but they have not been using it. This is to be developed. Now man is teaching this, but for his own purposes; many are teaching of extrasensory perception, of telepathic contacts, how to use metaphysical laws to become successful. They can be used for this, but why allow the world to use the laws for furthering its self-centered ends? Why allow it to go unused by the children of God who desire to be in line with His will? Let them develop these powers, instead, so that they be used for God's purposes. Then it shall be God-directed rather than used for self-gain.

In their divine nature, these souls have the privilege of using this communication system--this communion with God--opening to that which gives them guidance on everything needed. If man used this there would be no real problems because he would either know how to resolve them, or rise above them, using them as opportunities for growth in God's plan. The problems become mountainous because man, for the most part, has thought only of himself, but as he gains another perspective he sees the large panorama that God unfolds before him, knows the Source of power, and he knows that he is in contact with it. So it is that man must come out of his dormant state, develop that which is God-given for God's purposes, truly in line with that which is the plan of the Creator.

As you listen to the reading of the letters given unto the early Christians, you will remember that in many cases you were the ones there at the time, or if not you were among those who came later, all part of the Adamic race brought through Abraham, through Isaac, later dispersed over the world and now being gathered together, those that have endured unto the end. The writings were actually for this end of the age, but they also gave comfort and assurance at that time; helped men to understand their neighbor so that they could use the law of "Love thy neighbor as thyself," knowing "thyself" as the divine nature that God sent forth, begotten of Him in His image; seeing that in the neighbor rather than the human self.

That love is all part of loving God with heart, mind and soul--all--even the body's billions of cells, each with a nucleus of intelligence. This intelligence guides the various parts of the body when it is in tune with the head, the governing intelligence. Divine intelligence, moving through, brings greater wisdom, greater illumination. As man knows himself to be true, spiritual man, begotten of the Father and in His image, then he moves consciously in this divine nature, even in the third dimension. So does he also recognize the God-nature in his neighbor and love that, encouraging it and bringing it forth in a rapport between souls.

The reading of the ancient letters of those days helps to show that the early Christians experienced some of the same difficulties as you in this day, and it helps you, as it did them, to understand one another, to know what to expect from the world, to have increased discernment. More than anything else, pray without ceasing for the discernment to separate true from false, to know one from the other. Then you can move through the world unaffected and cannot be deceived by those of the world or by Lucifer.

God has not said that all are alike. He has not said that all would move in the same direction, but rather that there would be only a remnant left that would continue to have faith and trust in Him. Each vast age has brought forth a graduating class, just as you would harvest fruit each season. The angels are culling the fruit and it shows for itself who has remained faithful and desires to enter into the Kingdom of Spirit--Heaven on earth. These that have desired this have opened the way unto the revelation of God and have offered themselves. If it is in sincerity and humility then it is acceptable unto Him and they are chosen and brought forth, raised up to His purposes. And so you are among those of the remnant of this age, this day.

There are many over the Earth that have been faithful unto Him and shall be brought together in gatherings such as this, and the magnification of the power shall make them mighty though small in number. God's law is that His light shall come to earth through each instrument offered unto Him. The light in you shall be the light of the earth, just as when it was in him in the flesh. He then gathered disciples together and said "be ye the light of the world" and left this as an assignment down through the ages.

Those that would identify with him come into his consciousness, accept his great offer of love and sacrifice and listen to that within. You might say his mission would seem to be in vain if you did not come into the realization of the principle he gave his life to demonstrate. Each one of the sons of the Living God should have the knowledge, just as he, and be ready for attunement so that the power of the Highest move through him. As each realizes his identify and offers himself, opening to the power of God, the Father does the works through him. It is the innate nature and the law of God that works in that nature that manifests, each in its own season as it becomes ready.

One is taking the name of God in vain if he does not in greatest thanksgiving accept God's great gift of His own nature in each and the communication system that comes with it that permits him to walk and talk with God in the garden, in the higher dimension, in the higher consciousness. Lift up into that higher consciousness and know yourselves for that which you are--the sons of God--the seed of Abraham and Isaac, innumerable as the sands of the sea. Out of that number only a remnant has not become so distracted that they turned away in their own self-conceit. This remnant is being raised up to follow His commands. They are the meek that shall inherit His Kingdom on earth and work through a thousand years of Light to reestablish order there, to make all things new before ascending in the second resurrection into greater assignments. It is all part of the growth, the development of new responsibilities, learning to be about the Father's business in the heavenly spheres of His creation.

We speak to you as you would to your graduating classes on Earth. They have a certain amount of instruction and have grown to a so-called "maturity", and yet as they move through the doors into a larger life they are really just beginning. So it is with the remnant that is drawn out of this harvest. They are starting anew in a larger life of heavenly assignments in the cosmic realms, entering larger fields, learning the spiritual laws. This must be. It is time to look ahead and realize that as you practice patience and obedience, fulfilling small responsibilities this is only the beginning, a proving ground for you. As you do this you will be selected for higher assignments, greater responsibilities in your Father's kingdom.

One must prove himself worthy by using all that God gives him to the best of his ability and understanding, praying for discernment, ever thankful for that which he knows is coming from his Lord. Then will there be an increase from the never-ending Supply. Then each shall move from one understanding to another. You learn about your fellow man, learn compassion and love and patience, and yet you also learn not to get involved in things that will distract you from your purpose. This is discernment. You must keep your eyes on your goal. You can be kind to those around you but not be distracted by them, not go off on a tangent with them.

As it is near the end of the age, you must realize that your souls are being strengthened--character, integrity, honesty of the soul--and your soul-bodies are being worked on at night as you take soul flight. You will be conditioned more and more so that there will be a gradual increase of energies within you. Those that remain to be drawn up into the clouds could not take the higher energies, could not match the rise in frequency were it given them all at once. Your wisdom must be increased slowly in this higher rate of vibration, the greater intensity of energies, of light, until you become accustomed to the change without having it affect your nervous system too much. You are feeling increased nervous energy, feeling many of the increases of light and power moving through you.

It is God that shall do the work through you, it is God that shall bring forth the energies. You must learn to accommodate yourself to them in order to reach a corresponding frequency of light when you are drawn up into that ray. That is why we gradually increase the energies as we put the beam of light or ray of intensity on you, as we work with you, as we come through to you on this beam. It is an accumulation of what you might call high-voltage power. This is being accomplished for you before you even know that you have the need. Those who would be impatient should remember that God, in his mercy, extends the time long enough so as to condition you to be able to meet it.

Many are those that are waiting to join you, beloveds. There are many of your loved ones with you this night, as there have been during other meetings, because they are on this ray of light and energies with you. Their love is the bond and they are one in that God-consciousness, desiring to join hands with you as you enter into it in the fullness. There is just a thin veil between; it is you who are yet blind. It will open suddenly and you shall know that you have been with them very closely, particularly through these last days, for it is the purpose of the Father to draw into the glories of Heaven those able to meet them. Each one of your loved ones, with great desire, love and longing in his heart opens the door for those they love, and they stand at the open door, giving increasing light, giving you an advantage, as you might say, one a step ahead of the other.

When the wisdom of God is trusted, the heavens open for a great shower of blessing, of love and light. It is much easier, in the spiritual sense, for those following to go through an opening that has already been made. The bond of love is the great open door unto God and it literally draws you into a closer realization of the Father. Remember this always in your hearts. It is your treasure. You are One in God, each according to the love in his heart, all One in a great galaxy of love--energies beyond that which you can imagine. Love is the power that transforms and converts energies into the goodness of God and all that he would command, through the love of the angelic hosts and those ministering unto the sons of God--the elder brothers gone before. The cosmic realms send forth from the great cosmic sun those with love great enough to transcend the atmosphere of the Earth and to reach through unto the hearts of those ready to be attuned to them.

The divine contacts are the most important ones. You do hear of many on earth who have contact with space ships--contactees of all kinds and descriptions. There are levels as in all things, but contact with those coming to fulfill the Divine Law opens up the divine nature in each that is attuned to this. We are working with each one of you so that you can open the door wide, that heaven flood your being, that you be filled with the light and love of God that shall transform these energies into action to fulfill His law.

You are part of that which shall bring forth the Kingdom of Heaven on earth, for you are the transformers through which that energy shall move. You become transformers as you become filled with God's love. The divine nature within you, as it is raised up to His purposes, is that which He sent forth before in His love. Therefore it is ready to accumulate greater energy as it is drawn unto each vessel or instrument, ready to convert it, transform it into action and power for rebuilding according to His plan. This is revealed to you in the light of your consciousness, but only as you identify with His consciousness. It is as though superimposed, one over the other. You may call it many things such as, "in tune with the Infinite," or "synchronizing with His will." These must permeate your being as though you are a sponge soaking it in.

It is not your human thinking; you put it into your mortal mind. We are speaking to your souls and to the intelligent nucleus in each cell of your beings, that the electrical forces penetrate the very cells of your etheric bodies. These are growing, are being fed while you sit by, waiting, for you do not consciously know how to do this. Therefore, in the mercy of God, it is done for you in spite of you, sometimes, when it is difficult to quiet you or get your human selves out of the way.

When you draw together for God's purposes, even though you may not know them in detail, you come together in His name, seeking His consciousness, lifting your consciousness, coming together as one, which is the greater merging. Each one loses sight of self in merging with all, practicing selflessness. Practice losing sight of self more and more often by loving others, by loving God, by lifting your sights unto the hills literally, unto the higher. Do not look too closely and when you turn within let it not be into the self-centeredness but with your mind stayed on God, desiring to be in His will.

You are certainly doing this most of the time and you have made great progress. It even shows in the very auric field around you. You are becoming brighter lights and clearer channels. There is a greater intensity of light in your auric fields, those that we have been with before, and you are being raised up to higher purposes. You do not distract by asking, "What are those higher purposes?" You must trust in the wisdom of God and know that when you are ready He shall bring them forth, bring you to meet them. This is a very important factor, for so many are pulling themselves down by wanting to know immediately the ways and means and details at hand. This is the human not releasing unto the keeping of God. Of yourselves you have nothing to hold to, you have nothing to be proud of. God created you, sent you forth, and you are in His image. When you come into a perfected state of being it is to His glory.

Your consciousness gives you an individual recognition, and yet you are one with God. This is developed by the God-force that sent it forth; the wisdom and intelligence of God is directed to you. Your humanness has been the distraction. As you realize this more and more, you shall put it behind you and stand up and take authority in the soul, take dominion in the honor and authority given long ago, as Man, the spiritual nature, placed in Paradise to take dominion over the Earth and all upon it. Instead, humans became dictators. Dominating humanity is not the same as spirit taking dominion. Spirit has the wisdom of the ages, the intelligence and the light and love of God directing and manifesting in it.

When you offer yourselves back to Him you are living sacrifices, you are the vessels that He created and sent forth offered unto Him. You are realizing that you are nothing of yourself. Put down that self and offer Him an empty vessel so that it may be filled with His love and His light and can stand up in His will. We know that this is your desire. We are helping you to come into the realization of it. Be more submissive; humble yourselves before your Maker, and yet rise up in new strength not that of your own because His strength is in you. When you know the difference you will know that you must honor His power and His strength that is there. Let it be used for His purposes. You will learn in time, you will grasp the idea; the understanding will come to you as you dwell on it, as you sit quietly in meditation and listen to that small voice within.

Quiet the thoughts of your mortal mind. It is not difficult to recognize; it races like a runaway motor. Command in the soul, "Peace, be still!" Visualize Jesus standing in the boat on the stormy sea and the disciples, awakening in fear, asking him to still the storm and his rebuking them. He said, "Ye of little faith!" For a long time you have been asking him to do your work for you. Then you are raised up into the realization of what he taught his disciples. You are now his disciples. "Ye of little faith" have not been using it in your divine nature--faith to know that God in you can do all things, but only in the humble spirit as you humbly recognize. It is a submissiveness and then a taking of dominion, quietly, in confidence. Then you can give that command in the sea of consciousness.

You can give it to quiet the thoughts of your racing mind, to still your emotions, to quiet the symptoms of your disease, to quiet the organs of the body to make them move in rhythm, knowing that it is God-Consciousness that knows all, and the Father doing the works with you speaking the word as He directs. Then you begin to reorder your affairs or the circumstances around you--your environment--then you cease to be affected by outer things. You gain true control, not by force of the human, but by understanding of the soul and cooperation through your consciousness. You speak the word but you know from whence came the word. You have been given the authority to give the order but it is in your Christ nature that you have this authority and it is One with the Father. So how can you miss?

There are those who have tried this and failed because arrogance would creep in, the humanness would step forth and claim it, or would boast in pride. Know immediately that this is not the divine nature, and say, "Get thee behind me!" The two natures, one in humility, the other arrogant. Can you not recognize them and tell the difference? We are leading you into this reality. It has to be repeated because you have to repeat your efforts. We must reassure you but at the same time help you to see why you are distracted. One nature or the other appears and that is where you need discernment. Watch carefully, be alert to which nature is manifesting each moment of the day and night. The human nature is less offensive at night as the body sleeps, and yet it does go on astral flight. But the soul goes into the higher regions and brings back more of divine strength, divine food. You travel out and you return with that into which you travelled, come back and use the body as the temple. The body bears the brunt of all the trips you make, and you can see which is which. The humanness--the emotions, the flights into the lower astral, things collected and accumulated in the subconscious--plays havoc with the battlefield, the body. The divine nature reaches out for greater light, greater feeding. Many times the human nature robs the soul of its food by sustaining itself a little longer--the deceit that has been in all humanity. This robbing of the soul is the greatest deceit.

There never would have been the comeback had not your Lord loved you enough to enter into the very midst of the chaos to give you his consciousness, his light and love to lead you out. Be ever thankful for this and know that you are being prepared to be drawn into celestial ships. For those who go through the door first this is not essential. At this time those who have love in their hearts and have prayed for the Kingdom are entering the Kingdom whether they go through the door of transition or whether they are called up into the ships. Those who have gone over shall be raised first and all shall become as one together in that heavenly estate.

This is reality. For so long man has looked at it as a legend or a myth or a dream, but he has been living a nightmare. He is now coming out of the dream, out of the amnesia of the soul. The soul has awakened and is coming out of its prison, out of its grave, coming into its own, and though you desire humility, you must not be confused and afraid to allow this. Do not fail to let the soul come up in its confidence in Spirit. In this you may have confidence, for the Spirit is your only security.

That built upon solid rock shall stand upon that foundation--the rock of the recognition of sonship that Peter recognized in Jesus--Son of the Living God--in tune with the Father, the Father doing the works through him. Not of himself humanly. Then Peter had the key to the heavenly realms; he knew that not only had Jesus been the first to overcome and to be the Lord of Earth, but he knew that all those following him had to manifest this same law. This opened the door for all of those who followed. These were the mysteries that Jesus was teaching. But each of you has to realize it for himself. Then each desires to share with his brother. But this is the key that unlocks the door and, in deep humility, the soul steps forth and remembers its identity. This is what you are to realize.

It is not the first time that you have heard it, but each time it sinks in a little further until finally the door shall be opened and you shall have the key in your hands. You shall know that no longer do you have "to go in and out," but shall enter into your Father's estate and remain secure in Him--no more incarnations, for they will not be needed. You will enter in and remain as He then draws you in to His purposes in the cosmic realms where there are wonders to behold. He shall lead you through your mission on Earth during the millennium, in His kingdom in higher consciousness. No longer do you need to leave that consciousness.

Preparation is now taking place and will continue. Where we have a concentration of you, gathered together in a group (and this includes those yet coming), this shall be opportunity for the magnification of power. As much as you can, as frequently as you can during the day or night, sit quietly at times and feel this power welling up within you. It is a living, moving power. Your consciousness is expanding and greater power can enter, because you open into oneness with one another in divine love and you are not concerned with outer things. In your selfless state you are blending as one great body offered unto Christ. Then the Christ nature in you is lifted, is enhanced and God's power can come through in a greater way. Then you shall learn to feel the Spirit as it quickens within you, and to hear clearly the guidance that comes within you so that you obey and follow those promptings. It is God that shall make new; it is God that shall bring forth His goodness through you. There is now a cleansing process taking place, emptying the vessel of self so that God has something to use.

We draw near unto you, working with you, trying to make use of all available time left so that whenever the call comes you will be ready. Souls sitting together in higher consciousness will keep their focus on that higher. Then there can be an exchange of the spiritual energies and truths from one to the other on the soul level and the conversation will be in this vein. This is not a place for vacation; it is a place for vacating your temples that you may offer yourselves unto the Lord so that He fill your cups to overflowing with His holiness.

Later in the summer there will be many more sightings of celestial ships. Excitement over this must slow down so that there may be a dawning upon the consciousness of earth of the reality of them so that they be accepted as a promise being fulfilled--the divine intervention in the skies at the crucial time. Earth's situation is becoming more crucial all the time. Lift your prayers to God, that His will be done on Earth, that the Kingdom of Heaven on Earth finally be manifested. As in the heavens, so below. Those who have chosen citizenship in it and are submissive to their Lord will come in as co-rulers of this Kingdom. He is preparing now, so let your patience be increased, let your confidence, your faith be great, for the delay is mercy extended.

Be thankful for the tarrying time; your Lord is tarrying for your sake to allow you more time in which to come into full realization and be prepared. His angels walk hand-in-hand with you, ministering unto you. Let there be joy in your hearts. No matter how bad the situation on Earth may look, the joy of the Lord is in you. It is joyful that the kingdom of God shall be established on Earth rather than the false kingdom that has been nothing but chaos. One must be loyal only unto his God. That is the kingdom desired; all else is temporary.

Bless you, beloveds. We would not keep you too long. There will be time when you will have an open focus in conscious conversation. As your conversation stays upon the higher level you may then draw forth much unto your understanding. You must learn to function as conscious souls, keeping your conversation on soul level, soul desires, and in the light. We bless you and will work with you this night as your souls take flight. Each one will be guided and guarded well. In His name and purpose enter into the Spirit with joy and thanksgiving. Selah.

* * * * *

So be it! Aleph sends blessings and love into your beings. As we close we will draw greater power than ever into the midst of your vortex. Sit quietly after this, for a little while, and feel the power moving through. That Preparation is now taking place and will continue. Where we have a concentration of you, gathered together in a group (and this includes those yet is God moving through His instruments, sending forth healing currents unto points of need, to those who have need of healing. It shall benefit each of you as it goes to those to whom you direct it in visualization. Send God's healing light unto those who need healing, and send forth love unto those in need of great love. God moves through the love and light that you send forth. See the world surrounded by that brilliant light of the Cosmic as God's light comes to Earth through His instruments of service. Send forth that power in these next few minutes. We shall be with you. Peace abide in you as you come into line with His will. Balance of power and it goes forth in His name. Selah.

We draw near unto you, working with you, trying to make use of all available time left so that whenever the call comes you will be ready. Souls sitting together in higher consciousness will keep their focus on that higher. Then there can be an exchange of the spiritual energies and truths from one to the other on the soul level and the conversation will be in this vein. This is not a place for vacation; it is a place for vacating your temples that you may offer yourselves unto the Lord so that He fill your cups to overflowing with His holiness.

Later in the summer there will be many more sightings of celestial ships. Excitement over this must slow down so that there may be a dawning upon the consciousness of earth of the reality of them so that they be accepted as a promise being fulfilled--the divine intervention in the skies at the crucial time. Earth's situation is becoming more crucial all the time. Lift your prayers to God, that His will be done on Earth, that the Kingdom of Heaven on Earth finally be manifested. As in the heavens, so below. Those who have chosen citizenship in it and are submissive to their Lord will come in as co-rulers of this Kingdom. He is preparing now, so let your patience be increased, let your confidence, your faith be great, for the delay is merely extended.

Be thankful for the tarrying time; your Lord is tarrying for your sake to allow you more time in which to come into full realization and be prepared. His angels walk hand-in-hand with you, ministering unto you. Let there be joy in your hearts. No matter how bad the situation on Earth may look, the joy of the Lord is in you. It is joyful that the Kingdom of God shall be established on Earth rather than the false kingdom that has been nothing but chaos. One must be loyal only unto his God. That is the kingdom desired; all else is temporary.

Bless you, beloved. We would not keep you too long. There will be time when you will have an open focus in conscious conversation. As your conversation stays upon the higher levels you may then draw forth much unto your understanding. You must learn to function as conscious souls, keeping your conversation on soul level, soul desires, and in the light. We bless you and will work with you this night as your souls take flight. Each one will be guided and guarded well. In His name and purpose enter into the Spirit with joy and thanksgiving. Selah.

* * * * *

Go be fit! Allah sends blessings and love into your beings. As we close we will draw greater power than ever into the midst of your vortex. Sit quietly after this, for a little while, and feel the power moving through. That