

DISCOURSE

No. 7

The Cells of the Body

Scripture Reading: James, to the twelve dispersed tribes.

Greetings, beloveds. We have been attuned with Sarramya, the soul (our channel), and she has indeed been in the higher consciousness, even as she was reading from your Holy Book. That is part of the plan--that more and more she will give through the soul awareness in the higher frequencies, that which is conveyed unto the soul, whether it be from us or from others working with her. It is all the Spirit of God moving through each one as the relays become used in God's service of channeling. Those on Earth shall more and more consciously bring forth what the soul goes out to meet, or enters into.

Much of the time we are blending with the soul, Sarramya, and it is traveling out into higher frequencies of light. This may at times seem discomforting to the physical body, but the conscious realization of this shall continue. Then each one of you will follow in such manner. As your consciousness is raised you will finally reach a place where you will be at one with the Lord while yet conscious on the Earth. That is the paradise state of awareness encompassing far more than your third dimension.

As the consciousness expands unto the high frequencies of light, it can see and function in that light and still relay unto the Earth that into which it is moving and functioning--Heaven brought to Earth. The fourth dimensional state will be that high consciousness, functioning in paradise frequencies of light, and still walking the planet--a great expansion of consciousness.

So many have been confined to turning to the self-center, or to seeing that in the near-vision, being short-sighted, and not able to see the larger picture, nor rise as to the mountain-top in the consciousness, that they see the panorama before them. So the need is to expand, to open, that God reveal wide vistas before your eyes, even in a conscious state. Be not narrow in your views. You learn to function simultaneously in the third and fourth dimensions until you can finally sustain that in the fourth dimension and still be aware of where you walk. Thus it brings Heaven to Earth and the old falls away. Your limitations and your narrowness fall away when you have expansion, when you have greater vistas and begin to see glimpses of the vast plan of the Father for His creation.

You have been listening to the letters in your Holy Writings. They were preserved unto the end, not destroyed as personal letters might have been, so that they could tap that within you, bringing forth the remembrance from your souls. Now, of course, you may say many of these things do not apply to you, for you are not robbing anyone, you are not being as some of these mentioned. But, beloveds, you have been in your other lifetimes. You have learned; therefore, at this point, you are not as those. But your prayers that will expand your consciousness and soul can include prayers for forgiveness, and repentance for all that you have partaken of throughout your many lifetimes on Earth.

You are being cleansed of all things in these last days, so let your prayers be such. In some lifetime you have done just as much in the terrible ways of the world as others that you now read about. Of course, your soul has still progressed, in spite of that, because throughout these incarnations you have remained steadfast to reach that goal. In some you slipped far more than others. In some another soul along the way helped you to get back to the path, had influence through the law of attraction, because the very soul in you aspired to go to the highest. You abhor these things now (that you read about in others) because you have gone through it, you have learned better. But have you been truly cleansed? Now this does in no way mean you should assume a guilt complex (this would be thinking too much of yourself), but as a realization, a repentance for you and all your brothers in the world pattern, that all have fallen and come short of God's glory, and of His law. In that attitude your prayers become more meaningful. You move into reality in a stronger way.

There are things taking place in the innermost parts of your being that you do not know or understand in your third dimensional consciousness, and this is all right, but for that reason we are explaining why some of the things that we move you through may seem to be unnecessary to you, in your third dimensional consciousness. We bypass this and do it anyway, because in the wisdom God reveals to us, we know your needs, many times where you have not recognized them yet yourself.

As these go out to many other countries, someone in a far distant land may hear and open in the soul to realize, and to take something into himself in a completely new meaning. If a part of that which is read enlightens or stands out, in light, to someone who may have read the writings in the Bible and passed right over it, it is worth giving. So the rest of you bear with it, whether it is for you or not. We see in this a widespread purpose and goal, as we have used our instrument as a telephone between realms.

We have many times brought through things that each would benefit from; other times possibly one in a group would feel it opened new doors for him. All should rejoice even if only one has new doors opened. For every door you go through, beloveds, there are thousands waiting to be opened ahead of you. One reason is that there are billions of cells in your being and only some of these have opened. We would not bring the light unto part of you, and leave the other part dangling. All of you will enter into the joys of the Lord--that means the live intelligence at the center of the atom of every cell of your being.

You have consciousness not only in your head. You have consciousness and God-life in every minute cell that has traveled through all your incarnations. Some have been blocked, some have been clogged, some are cut off, some are not functioning. God's mercy extends unto every last one of the minute cells of your being. God be praised that this is so! Without this you would not be complete in your Christ-consciousness. Again, that is the reason for the mission of your Lord and Master, Jesus the Christ, in the composite body of the Christ nature, which he heads. It will not be complete until the last one of the sheep has been brought into the fold, whether that means you or someone else. It is vital to God's purpose, and His love and mercy would not leave one out. Thus it takes what you call a long, long time. Thank God for that, or you would not have entered.

A long time went before your arrival into this consciousness. Thus in patience you wait for the arrival of others behind you. All, in due course, is being brought up into God's light and love--an unfolding of life on the evolving worlds. What a vast program! Worlds without end! Eternal life, always, always, always! And a thousand years here is only a day in Eternity. You became aware of the long, drawn-out time, because you were painfully coming up the ladder and were drawn in too close to the self-center, farther away from the divine center. Now you are coming closer and closer to the divine center, and each day takes you farther away from the self-center.

It takes a while to crucify the old self. It takes a while to realize and be encompassed by God's eternal light, and to let each cell of your being come up out of the sea of unbelief. When you get the idea in your mind, the entirety of your being is not there; when you accept something that seems reasonable to you, you are only beginning to work with that seed of acceptance. You have an entire kingdom to tend, to water and nurture--the billions of cells within you, within the soul being, the ethereal body. You are now the caretaker of that, just as the governing factor of you is following the Great Caretaker. There is the communication network again.

Your Lord of Earth is your Shepherd leading you through green pastures, beside the still waters--through the beautiful places, through the places of feeding--and through the valley of the shadow of death; leading you through all your experiences. When you come into alignment, you are in conscious attunement with your Lord as he gives directions. You accept them in the governing head of your being, and you send the message throughout the kingdom of you--to the organs of your body, the cells of your being--each one a living cell with vital intelligence needing to be renewed, needing to be purified, needing freedom to function in that great temple.

There are many mansions, many cells of life in that house of the Lord, the temple called you--just as in the greater house of Israel--many tribes, many individuals in the tribes. And in the great house of Creation, in the Father's house of the vast worlds without end, there are many mansions, many solar systems, all to be brought into perfect order. In your finite mind you could not possibly conceive of all this. We are assisting you to open enough to receive glimpses. One day you will burst forth into the infinite reality, and then you will know. For true knowing is to be with God, consciously, extensively.

The glimpses are leading you up the way, farther and farther up the ladder, and every so often you reach a new plateau or a new mountain-top. You see wide vistas before you, and you marvel. You did not know that it could be that large, that great, that expansive. And that is only a glimpse. Marvels lie before you in greater ways, beyond you. Each mountaintop is tremendous in your awareness, yet it lies at the foot of the next mountain, and you will be lifted up as more of you expands and goes toward greater illumination--the Kingdom of God in the temple of you with all the potentials housed there. You could not have borne such a tremendous responsibility had you been aware of it prior to now, in the intervening time since you fell from the paradise state.

God does not give you more than you can bear. Therefore, in His mercy, was the memory shut off until your desire would lift you into greater and greater heights. Then He could allow you a greater glimpse and greater responsibility. And then, according to your action, your taking this and moving with it, you would go through a period of probation. You would actually be proving to yourself within what you could meet and what you could not. If you could not meet it and you slid back it would retard your progress, but the mercy of the law still held it out before you, waited for you to become disillusioned with the old ways, until you moved out of that illusion and into the greater. Choice and free-will, constantly.

So many of the things are difficult for us to bring you in words because your soul has not yet reached the conscious realization of it. We are now helping you to function in the third dimension, while conscious of the fourth dimension and the greater realities beyond that. We are lifting you into these in a way that would not be too rapid for you, that it not throw you off balance completely--careful evaluation, careful assistance. Some, in their eagerness, desire to go faster than others, but we are helping you to realize what you are moving into, and helping you to realize that the old ways which you are leaving behind you are not worth your consideration.

Be not surprised when you see many things that cause you to be disillusioned. You have put your dependence in the wrong things; thus it is necessary that you reach a place of disillusionment in order to let it go and place your dependence where it belongs. Too many have placed their dependence in world authorities, and too many have placed dependence even in their close friends or their leaders or teachers. The dependence should not be there. They should receive your respect but you must take heed, looking and weighing carefully. Be open to the necessity of being led up the steps, but place the dependence in the Spirit of God. The law that operates is the law that makes this possible.

Many have diverse gifts, but the Divine Spirit brings them all, possibly at times using different instruments of relay. It is the same spirit of God manifesting in each temple that is open to God. The reason that we have asked you not to ask too many questions about us as individuals is because we do not want you to become suspended in that, just as you do not focus on the channel and become suspended in that. Faith and the dependence are not to be placed in the instrument, but on the Spirit that manifests through it. So many in the past have worshipped the human instruments, and this has been error.

Even Jesus asked that no man call him "good" or worship him as the human, as the man Jesus, but to have awe and respect for the great Law in operation manifesting in him--the oneness of the son with the Father. Since he was the first one to make that breakthrough, to overcome all the limitations of the Earth and be free, he became the leader, the prince, the Lord for those who would follow after him. But it was the Law he was showing, not himself as such. In the olden days there was worship of cosmic beings--the gods and goddesses that came unto Earth. Some of the cosmic beings allowed themselves to be worshipped. This was an error and they were shifted in their positions due to this. But those coming in great love and desire to obey the Father will bring forth the laws, will assist and minister as much as possible behind the scenes without having attention drawn to themselves.

This is one of the things that you may watch for in your world when many false prophets or imposters go out from various dimensions, some telling deliberate lies, others making the most of the opportunity to have glory directed unto them, as they know the gullibility of the people on Earth. They will be worshipped because of their illustrious names or because they satisfy human egos. We do not come to satisfy any ego. We come in love to point the way to the one who is your Shepherd and Lord of Earth. And he pointed the way to the union of you, the son, with the Father indwelling in you. This is where your attention should be directed.

Instruments between different realms are used in God's service according to His will, for His glorification and not for themselves. All those coming and serving in that purpose are of God. Test the spirits, test the channels, test all the way through. Whom are they glorifying? Whom are they announcing? Do they deny the Lord who found oneness with the Father and left you the example? If so they are part of the anti-christ, leading you away from the realization of that union with the Father.

The anti-christ wants you to have no part of discovering the key in you (union with the Father), for then the kingdom of falseness has lost more citizens forever. Thus the division of the Christ and the anti-christ. It is so much more than saying Jesus the Christ and one opposed to him as such.

It is the tremendous concept of the Father-Creator sending forth the begotten, to expand, and through freewill consent to return unto Him--the source of all life--to govern His worlds with Him, according to His will. Thus you find that which we have called "radar guidance" within, that innate intelligence, guidance, wisdom and light within--the son finding the union with the Father within the temple. This is the key to it all. Then darkness disappears, for light has come in and flooded the being. As the being is illumined, more of the Father's plan is revealed. The motives of the heart rise according to the desire, and the desire opens, if it is to be in the Father's plan, the Father's will. The being surrenders unto the Father and prays, that key that unlocks all. In that state of consciousness, with pure motives, ask and you shall receive. Be not perturbed if there is a time lapse between the asking and the receiving.

You are receiving and will receive more, for you have reoriented. We do not dwell on the praising of you, but we do at times encourage you, beloveds. You deserve encouragement, for you have, from the utmost part of your being, searched and prayed and desired your God. Thus you are moving into the reality of the God-consciousness. There are yet things to be refined, and the finished product has not appeared, but this will be. We are helping you to understand yourselves of many incarnations and your divine selves from the time of your begetting, the going out into the pastures of creation. Then we bring you remembrance that you have the Father to return to, that you have the Source of supply for everything--all potency within you. It is a blessing that this was cut off for a time, for until you developed true motives and true desires of the Divine Plan, it would most certainly not have been wise to allow you to use this potency for self-centered desires. To an extent you were allowed to use it, but not to the vast extent that you will be allowed by God as you come into His plan.

Even now you can be trusted with more, but remember that even though you have come through many of the laws without breaking them (as it was given in the reading of the Scripture), if you are breaking one you are still a law-breaker. It is God within that shall reveal these things to you and tell you how you may have broken them. Put not your dependence upon man's authority, his interpretation of what is a broken law and what is not. You can learn much by focusing upon many of the things written in books, or by listening to teachers and those who minister, but one that is moving in wisdom and truly following the Father will be the first to admit that he does not know all. He would not be final in any doctrine that he would give you.

You are opening more and more, and as you do God reveals more to you. The judge is literally in you. As you expand you see the contrasts, you see how certain things fall short of the goal which you are going toward. Be patient, kind and loving with yourselves, for you cannot move into the fullness of it in one instant, at this point. You are going toward it more and more. Your sincerity, your desire, will lead you farther. You will endure some of the tribulations and show your metal. The attitude in which you meet the obstacles (even now as well as those to come) will show your faith, and your faith shall be firm.

No matter what happens, never deny your Lord, nor that you know him--are part of him. (That denial set Peter back two thousand years.) All are working together toward the fullness of the righteousness of God within every cell of their beings. It is not only in your mind, solar plexus and the spiritual centers. These are the doors that open. The desire of your heart brings motivation, but it is the Spirit that shall fill every part of your being. Hold true to every bit of God's light and truth that come as knowing in your heart. Guard it well. The Spirit bears witness to the truth.

Possibly you can be helped by visualizing this as a play or drama, upon the stage of your theater. If you are taking a role, you accept it saying, "Yes, I will play this part." Then you practice and practice; you identify with it. You learn all the history of it, you get the feeling of that one, and during that time, to the best of your ability, you become this. As you do for a time you forget, lose sight of the other role that you are playing. When you take the name of that part and step upon the stage, you think it, speak it, look it, you walk in the manner that you believe that one walked. The first thing you know it becomes a part of you. If you play it for a long time you may have difficulty in getting back to your own situation, your own name and role. You may get them confused.

This happened in many of the incarnations. But think of this in terms of taking on the mantle of the Christ, taking on the role of the Christ in you. That seed was planted, it has been growing--the conception took place. It is now approaching the time when delivery of the begotten son, the image of the Father, is at hand, coming into the maturity of the Christ nature. God is in Christ; Christ is in God--there is the oneness of the son and the Father. When you take on that role and consciously, deliberately assume it and practice it because it is your real self, you are actually, in one sense, getting off the stage of your incarnations, and getting back to your true nature.

You really are of the Christ nature, your true eternal self. Do not hang onto the other one. It is dying. You, the eternal you, is not dying. It is moving into fuller life, more abundant life. Realize this presence of divinity within you. The begotten son of the Father is divine and deserves respect--the conscious I AM, deep in the center of you. Say "I AM alive," in all humility, and yet in all reality, and all expectancy. You. How marvelous! We respect the Christ nature in you and ask you to constantly remember it, that you not slip away from that which you are. That innate intelligence shall lead you up the steps. That wisdom within you, as you take authority in the divine nature, will control and subdue your emotions, will cast out the thoughts of the mortal mind. You are coming into your own. Assume the role. Act it as though you are practicing for a part, developing in it, and you will finally realize how well it fits, how permanent it is. Then you will go out no more unto the false ones.

The ethereal body is being strengthened all the time, and as these things are brought to mind and to remembrance, it is the promise being fulfilled. When Jesus left, he said, "I will not desert you. I must go to the Father and then I will return unto you. But in the meantime my Spirit goes forth. I shall send out my Spirit over the Earth, and you shall know that I am with you." In a sense, you might say you have been living in that--the numerous ones, the body of those following the Christ. You can almost think of it as multiple births in the mother's womb--the embryos growing, encompassed by the Spirit, being nurtured until in due season there is the birth in Spirit. You have been born of water; you must be born of the Spirit. The conception took place; you have been growing, developing.

In God's wisdom you are to be delivered whole, in the fullness of His perfect plan for the perfect Christ of each; each one the begotten son sent forth; each one coming up to the fullness, the maturity of the Christ in that plan. It is the principle of cells becoming Christs, one with the Father. The King of Kings--the Lord of Earth--is coming back to rule these, and certain co-rulership will take place with it, for the Christs of God will manifest and bring His kingdom to the planet Earth. Thus many of the worlds before have been raised up, spiritualized, and are part of the great, heavenly estate of the cosmic realms, lighted by that great sun--the central sun which pours forth light (no longer cut off) unto all.

What love and mercy, what wisdom there is in the Creator's intelligent functioning and operating throughout His Creation! How arrogant of mankind to think that as the human he can take credit unto himself, or deny there is a God, or try to prove God according to his finite logic, his small mortal intellect! These are the deceptions, the illusions, the nightmare with which you have been occupied. You are coming out of the nightmare now; you are awakening, and through the mysteries and workings of God's Creation, you will come into a knowledge of the Infinite. Thus, as your desires motivate you forward, they open the doors. Prayer is that "soul's sincere desire", opening, reaching out unto God. With it you will be lifted into reality. You are awakening, getting ready for that moment of change "in the twinkling of an eye". Those words are most appropriate, for thus it shall be. Your soul body shall be ready, shall be ministered unto by the angels of Heaven, and God shall move all into place who have been true to Him, those who have fulfilled the small responsibilities, and He shall give them greater ones and the wisdom, the strength with which to meet them.

Those who have already been tested--tried and proven--shall no longer go out from Him, but shall enter into the joys of His Eternal Life. As we have said: After the thousand years--which shall not seem lengthy to you because you shall be functioning in timelessness, but according to earth measure, that Age of Light--you shall then complete that which you were to have done in Paradise State, when you were placed there. Then shall come your second resurrection into higher planes, to go farther in the plan of the Father.

Soon your limitations shall be transcended. Bear with it longer. Focus upon the love and mercy of God, in the faith that shall lift you up into His higher purposes, and you will not be so alarmed then by that which is painful to you. Do not look at the symptoms; do not look at the pain. Think of the cause and effect in the large, large picture, and you will know that you are being brought in as a result of your steadfastness in the past. He has already accepted you as citizens of His new Kingdom. There is no doubt of this. There is only your readiness awaiting completion. Let your attitude be that of great thanksgiving, great love for your Father. This shall lift you just as fuel lifts a balloon into the skies. The more you love your Father the more you shall become love. Let the praise and thanksgiving and gratitude fill you. This will expand you, increase your capacity to receive, and greater light shall infill you.

You, the temple, are the dwelling place of God the Father, with His potentials, His abundance. A sacred trust. Guard it well. Let none of the old habits of the Earth pattern--whether it be certain trainings or conventions, or traditions--interfere with the temple of God, the expansion of the consciousness. Lay them aside and move on into the new life. Do not try to fit God into your finite mind; expand and move into His mind where there is no end.

Bless you, beloveds. Bless you and keep you in His loving care. Remember, just as the mother loves and cares for the infant before and after birth, you are receiving loving care, more tender than any on Earth. We shall be with you again. At another time we will give you the opportunity to participate, to ask certain questions of soul needs, if they are such that we can give you the answers. We will certainly try to answer some of your questions in a way that would help your understanding. We do not mean the Earth type of questions, but those of soul need. If you have specific questions of this type, we will focus upon them and talk with you in that consciousness. May you come closer to peace as you come closer to alignment with the Father's will. Selah!

* * * * *

So be it! We all stand by but it is not necessary that we all speak through the voice-box. Know that we are with you; we are working with you individually. You were in soul flight last evening, in which much progress was made, because you have learned to still yourselves, at least at times. Practice taking dominion, the soul quieting the rest of you, and we shall continue to assist. Selah!