The Light Centers

Greetings, beloveds. We are with you throughout the day and night; it is becoming almost constant for you in lifted consciousness, and in your individual prayers and meditations you are keeping your focus high. The Spirit is in your midst, particularly as you are drawn here together for this purpose and this entire place given over unto the working of the Spirit. There is increasing power--the everlasting Life moving through--for you are keeping the level of your consciousness high. As you form this vortex for that purpose, it is used of God and the recharging is going on continuously. You are feeling the quickening. Shortly you will begin to have dreams or experiences at night that you will remember as soul flight takes place. It is of utmost importance to come apart from the world at times, as you have done. This should be practiced more often, for it is only when the focus has been taken off of the world of matter and business and all these things upon which mankind has depended, that he can rise to new heights and the work of the Spirit can move forward in greater ways.

All that man has depended upon is going to crash, therefore it is necessary that he change his point of dependence and realize that he has not been basing it on the true security. Spirit is eternal; matter is temporal; systems of the world are temporary. This has been proven by nations rising and falling throughout the ages, and again at the end of this age all nations--the world kingdom which man has built--shall fall. But Spirit shall transcend this and complete order shall be brought out of chaos. This crumbling shall take place and the new shall rise from the ashes. In God's mercy you are now being given the opportunity to reorient, become God-centered and find order in your life before chaotic changes come. Is it not difficult to learn stability in the midst of a stampede? Learn stability first and avoid the stampede; learn to control and to put down excitements, that you become stable, at peace within yourself.

Now you may ask, how can one be at peace when he sees terrible things all around him in the world? It is not that you love the fall of anything, but you know God has ordained that that which is not of His plan, was not brought forth by Him, must fall. Now God created all, but He did not bring about the chaotic illusions, the false kingdoms. These usurped His power, were built of man's own imaginings only. The false imaginings, the false systems that would imprison man must fall. The only true security lies deep within the center of your being--the foundation which which your soul is truly built. This is the everlasting power of God, the Christ nature being raised up in you. Then you may turn within your Holy temple of God and know that God dwells there and not in some distant place. Those who reach this security will find the peace that surpasses all understanding, for it shall stem from the very throne of God within.

You are truly Christians standing by at attention, watching for your Lord's return. Yes, this has been said many times in past ages, but the spirit within you shall bear witness to the truth and you shall have confirmation of this. This is the ending of the age and much has to be accomplished in the world before the millennium begins. The believers are to make ready, endure to the end of their particular tribulation and be raised up until the wrath of the Gentiles has been finished, the Gentiles being those who profess to be non-believers. The great law of cause and effect stops for no man. Those who have wandered farthest off the track shall have the greatest tribulation. The others are being prepared to serve God in the Kingdom that is coming. It shall come through His sons on Earth demonstrating in their outer lives that which they believe. True it is within, but it must be found, recognized and used within before it can function in the outer.

Our beloveds, we know the sincerity of your hearts. We have been working with you for quite some time and we know that there are questions that you would like to have us answer, or at least attempt to answer. We know that you can be entrusted with a question period, although we stopped this sometime ago, because not only did it bring repetition but many did not know to stay on the level of spirit in their questioning. So in the higher consciousness, or if there are points that you might need clarified, we shall be glad to try. If you desire to focus upon some particular subject or area, feel free to do so. We would like you to participate to some extent, so that you are sharing and exchanging love and spirit with us--an interchange of God-in-action among us all--for we all serve in His Name.

Question: What about communications between the light centers?

Answer: Do you mean spiritual communication or otherwise?

Questioner: I mean communication in spirit.

Answer: This has been the purpose as we have many times assisted in bringing some of you together. It is very important. That is part of the purpose now. The light centers where our channel stays in each city become highly charged points, centers of light, and much goes out from there in prayer, in meditation. This is light energy sent forth to key points, as from your radio stations. Thus they identify with each other, when the channel knows each one and they also know each other. They can then tune in with one another in prayer and meditation, each visualizing the others and projecting to them at times.

You may practice projection, and in so doing the soul visits the different centers. This is a practice that would develop into something greater in the fourth dimension. It is a fourth dimensional activity taking place while you are conscious in the third. This is going to have to be increased. As it is, more power moves through.

We encourage you to listen to the tapes, for the power of the voice vibrations penetrates into the soul. Those who listen to tapes can identify with the original sessions. As you do this, it sets up an open network, a force-field of energy moving between the light centers, as you would in sending a telegram, a radio communication or in the use of the telephone as you talk with one another. There will be much more of this thought transference, as the spirit energies travel back and forth, just as your electrical impulses do.

As you practice, this is increased, and the first thing you know there is no awareness of the distance involved. It moves from point to point and when there is need for more prayer, where there is an illness or a vital need at one point, the others tune in and become aware of it because they are connected as though it were a party line. Your prayers in the light form points of contact.

As your astronauts are in orbit there are certain points over the Earth with which they communicate and these points communicate with each other. It is an open network. This is much more powerful when done in the spirit. Once you consciously make the effort to establish a rapport with the souls in other centers, this becomes a highly charged point of contact. If you were going across a dark field and you were lost, you would need to look for a beacon light somewhere. These points of light that you establish are greater light, and those from the other side needing assistance see that light. It is part of the Christ offering the light and life to all in darkness. There is assistance given that you are not aware of and it is part of God's plan that these light centers be established, but not to the credit of any individual. For there, God has found points of contact, with willing and open souls to be His instruments of love and light. Not only are these souls blessed, but they stand as servants of God in the lighted doorways, helping to signal the preparation for His Kingdom to others. (The early Christians had a system of identification between one another.) That light is the sign that the Christ is there. Communication between centers strengthens the bond between each one of the members of the body of the Christ. This is strengthened through thought transference and love and power that is sent forth from the spiritual centers of each. It is as though they are at the hub of a wheel. Others are drawn to the light in time, responding to the Christ love that you give. This light increases until finally throughout the remnant, throughout those that are gathered in many places, it brings leavening. This helps to bring in the Kingdom.

As this communication is strengthened, later on when the power failures come and the lines of communication in all ways that man is dependent upon are cut off, then God's communication will be established. Thoughts, needs, will be made apparent without the telephone, without wires. God's electricity does not shut off. That which is established in Him becomes useful for His purpose. Those with faith to believe can build this, just as surely as they would build the power lines to furnish electricity and telephone communication to communities. But this is for a far greater purpose and power although it can be used for communication in times of difficulties. This is His power moving through those who are partaking of all that He offers. It is a network connecting the Body of the Christ on Earth. There is great value in meeting with each other beyond any pleasures of fellowship in the physical. Souls making contact with one another are working together in God's plan. As this develops more use shall be made of it than ordinary means of communication.

You are, indeed, receiving showers of blessings. (At this time it was raining very hard.) Many times meetings have been given increased power as rain falls from Heaven, cleansing the earth, purifying the air and blessing those upon whom it falls.

You shall be receiving more inner messages in dreams or the remembrance of soul flights which shall increase within you the expectancy of the coming Kingdom. Know that in due course His Kingdom shall be established and you shall be a part of it. Begin to watch for symbolic messages that come to the soul during sleep. When you have these, as you begin to awaken, do not stir until you have brought them safely into your conscious mind so that you may examine them. Spirit brings forth many messages to the soul, often in symbols, and as it breaks through into the conscious mind there comes greater understanding. The language of Spirit is in symbols.

We will work with you again this evening. We have been doing this each night so that you might be better conditioned in the etheric body and that you might be taught in the soul. There shall be no fear when the word comes for you to be drawn into the celestial ships, for these shall preserve you, your fourth dimensional self, just as the ark preserved Noah. God uses the celestial ships for His purposes and He sends them from cosmic realms to assist in the Divine Airlift when the need arises. There are thousands of ships that can take as many as there is need for. So let your trust be in God. There are ways of which you have not dreamed that He cares for His own. Put more of your focus and attention upon development of the Christ nature in you and to the God to whom you will turn in obedience and trust. It is being done unto you even now as you sit here.

The ministering takes place; the chemistry in your body, the endocrine glands are worked with--invisible ones work by your side. It would alarm and disturb the physical if you were aware of every little thing. In fact it would distract you so much that the curious side of your mortal minds would begin to interfere. We work better with your souls when your human nature is out of the way. By now you surely understand this and the need for it. It is the mercy of God that so much is done for you in spite of the willfulness of the human nature. Lovingly you are prepared, even when you are not aware of it. At night when you go to bed you are not afraid to go to sleep. You sleep and trust that you will arise in the morning. So trust in God's greater plan and in that Great Morning you shall indeed arise in the garment of the Paradise State.

Rejoice! The time is not far off. Prepare yourselves so that you not be distracted when the things of earth take place. This is what you must control. Keep your focus upon your goal of attaining Christhood in God the Father. Patiently and calmly walk through the midst of turmoil; when it is possible, come ye out of the world, stand on the sidelines and observe. Some of this will be necessary; it is part of the Father's plan. No matter how long it seems to take to you, do not be impatient, for you will be grateful, when the time comes, that you have had slow training. God's wisdom moves behind all. Feel the accumulation of the power and energies in your midst, and send these out, whether it be to individuals, to other light centers that you know about, or to other points. This work of the Fellowship is only one part of the entirety of the great Christ work--one of the members of the body, one of the functioning organs of the body. Send out light over the Earth, that darkness fall away. Selah.

So be it! Now direct forth this light, this energy. At every opportunity come together to meditate and to pray and direct forth the energies which God sends through you, His prepared instruments, coming together as one body to serve in the great Body. We shall send forth a beam of light into your midst and shall assist you. God be with you as you send forth that with which He fills the temple, the vortex. It is His own Light. Selah.
